Artwork Network Sends Six Pieces by Colorado Artists to Ambassador in Athens, Greece

(Denver) Artwork Network has sent six pieces by Colorado artists to Athens, Greece to be displayed in the United States Embassy. A graduate from the University of Colorado in Boulder, the recently inducted Ambassador Daniel B. Smith and his wife chose artwork depicting classic Colorado landscapes: mountains and blue skies.

The chosen pieces represent a variety of different mediums, including watercolor and photography, and will remain at the US Embassy for approximately three years. The artwork is by Boulder's Charly Heavenrich, Diana Tripp, Gia Hamilton, Aurora's Jessica Wicken, and Morrison's Jen Veitch. These pieces, as well as limited edition prints, are available for purchase, and the public is encouraged to put in their bid for these original artworks in advance.

The pieces may be viewed on Artwork Network's website at www.artworknetwork.com.

Artwork Network connects buyers and sellers via the web, and provides technology-driven art consulting to help collectors, businesses, and interior designers find the perfect original art. An extensive array of inventory from over a hundred talented artists can be viewed online at www.artworknetwork.com. Additional services include business art rotation, online art brokerage, art consulting, handling and installation, artist and gallery websites, as well as in-house framing and photographic services. The showroom and working artist studios, (located in the heart of Denver's exciting ArtDistrict on Santa Fe) displays a selection of our member's work for view and purchase.
