"Organized Chaos":

Phil Bender & Curt Fowler Exhibit at Artwork Network June 1st – 30th

Organization and abstraction come together for a month long exhibit at Artwork Network during June 2012. Colorado artists Phil Bender and Curt Fowler display their newest works.

Is it raining Phil Bender? Bender's second show this month (his other exhibit, "Games People Play" runs at Pirate Gallery from June 1st – 17th) features an array of wooden objects collected by Denver's friendliest hoarder. This display of ordinary items arranged into simple repeating patterns force the viewer to examine the everyday in an uncommon light.

Also on exhibit are works by self proclaimed 'painter chaotica', Curt Fowler. "I see chaos as a constant in life, coming to sometimes appreciate it. The paintings are an expression of how a chaotic endeavor can sometimes appear harmonious." Fowler's colorful abstracts create an interesting juxtaposition with Bender's organized objects.

Catch this month-long exhibition beginning on the First Friday Artwalk, June 1st, and afterwards during Artwork Network Gallery & Event Center's normal business hours of Monday-Friday 10am-5pm, and Saturdays 12-4pm.
